Headteacher: Mr Ben Walsh

Ofsted November 2013: This is a Good school with Outstanding Behaviour and Safety

Learning Support Assistants required for June 2017 or as soon as possible thereafter

Salary Range: Grade C £17,646-£18,311

The full time, term time only pro-rata rate is £15,338- £15,916

Contract: Full-time (36 hours/week), one year appointment initially and term time only

A number of (initial) one-year contract vacancies have arisen.

These roles will require the successful candidates to work with pupils who have a range of special educational needs; providing general lesson support to different classes, in a range of subjects. Students at St Philip's School have moderate learning difficulties, ASD and other needs such as chromosomal syndromes.

Applications are invited from individuals interested in working in a genuinely unique setting, where a holistic approach to the personal development of young people includes supporting their cognitive, emotional and mental health well-being.

The successful candidate will:

- ❖ supervise activities for individuals or groups under the direction of a teacher
- ❖ help to prepare activities for the pupils' educational and developmental needs
- ❖ promote appropriate behaviour in line with the school's behaviour policy
- ❖ support the school ethos by promoting a purposeful, orderly and supportive environment
- ❖ promote the inclusion of all pupils
- ❖ be aware of, and comply with, all school policies and procedures; particularly relating to child protection, first aid, health, safety and security, confidentiality, data protection, reporting any concerns to the relevant person

St Philip's is committed to safeguarding and promoting the welfare of children and young people; there is an expectation that all staff share this commitment.

Application closes: 12.00 noon Friday 26th May 2017

Interviews: Week commencing Monday 5th June 2017
